

2020 IUCN WCC Korea Pavilion Side Events

1. Asia's Protected Areas – Cornerstones for Sustainable Development

This session will provide a comprehensive assessment of Asia's progress towards the achievement of Aichi Biodiversity Target 11, and identify ways of strengthening the contribution of protected areas to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the Post-2020 Global Biodiversity Framework.

Organization: Korea National Park Service

2. Korea National Park Promotion

Introduction and promotion of best policies and practices in Korea National Park Service such as the restoration of endangered species, visitor service and cooperation with local communities, etc.

Organization: Korea National Park Service

3. The Value of Korean Tidal Flat

Introduction of Outstanding Universal Value of Korean Tidal flat (Getbol).

Organization: Ministry of Oceans and Fisheries (MOF) & Korea Marine Environment Management Corporation(KOEM)

4. Introduction of the Global Research and Training Center for Internationally Designated Areas (GCIDA)

Introduction of the role and function of the GCIDA and discussion on the future direction of running the center

Organization: Jeju Special Self-Governing Province

5. 9th International Conference on UNESCO Global Geoparks on Jeju Island

Promotion of the 9th International Conference on UNESCO Global Geoparks

Organization: Jeju Special Self-Governing Province

6. Promotion of the EABCN (East Asia Biodiversity Conservation Network) to implement the GSPC targets in East Asia

Session for increasing awareness of the public about the efforts of the EABCN to conserve plant diversity in East Asia.

Organization: Korea Forest Service (Korea National Arboretum)

7. Preparations and priorities for the XV World Forestry Congress

This session will share information on the XV World Forestry Congress preparatory process, and engage stakeholders to open up a dialogue on main challenges facing the environment and forest sector, and explore how the WFC can be an innovative forum to bring stakeholders together to address these challenges, leveraging partnerships and presenting cutting-edge solutions.

Organization: Korea Forest Service (Korea National Arboretum), FAO

8. Promotion activities of Getbol, Korean Tidal Flat to be inscribed in World Heritage List

The activities are to support World Heritage inscription of Getbol nomination and help to increase its possibility of the inscription

Organization: World Heritage Promotion Team of Korean Tidal Flat

9. Humanimal

Informing the seriousness of suffering species living on the Earth due to climate crisis and share the importance of biodiversity and to action plan for biodiversity conservation.

Organization: DAEJAYON

10. Youths Ask You

Session for listening to the voices of youths on biodiversity and to cultivate environmental knowledge and strengthen the capacity of university student environmental activists who are the future generations through QnA of experts and IUCN members.

Organization: DAEJAYON

11. National Institute of Biological Resources (NIBR) to conserve values of Biodiversity

Exhibit to present the achievements of the National Institute of Biological Resources (NIBR) on biodiversity conservation.

Organization: National Institute of Biological Resources, Republic of Korea